

2 Academic Year Course

Take your commitment to solving social disadvantage further. Our Diploma of Community Services will give you the right skills to help the lives of people who need it most.

This course will prepare you to work in a broad range of community services roles in direct practice or team leadership. These roles may include mental health, domestic violence, child protection, employment services and migrant support.

Course Structure

TasTAFE teachers know the industry well and come equipped with years of experience. Our teachers are enthusiastic to pass on their practical knowledge to see you succeed. We offer you excellent support to ensure you successfully complete your studies.

Students must be available to undertake at least two days per week or up to 300 hours of work placement throughout this program. Placement will be arranged by TasTAFE in consultation with the student and organisations.

This course is accredited with the Australian Community Workers Association (ACWA).

Employment Outcomes

Graduates will be qualified to work as a Child Welfare Officer, Social Housing Coordinator, Community Services Case Manager or related role.

Student Success Story

TasTAFE Community Services student Mohanavani was awarded the 2016 Ueno award, recognising her commitment to study and strong contribution to the community.

The award recognises an international student who demonstrates high motivation, commitment to their studies and involvement in community life.

Mohanavani was recognised for her outstanding attitude, professionalism and the high standard of her work. She volunteers at Christmas providing food and gifts to people experiencing financial hardship. She also volunteers in an aged and support care accommodation facility.

Mohanavani was also recognised for her involvement with on campus projects such as the Health expo and Harmony Day, an event celebrating cultural diversity.

Mohanavani's dream is to complete her Diploma of Community Services and work in Tasmania before returning to Malaysia with her family to work in helping people impacted by domestic and family violence.
